Hold Franklin Grove Woman in Auto Deaths Narrow Escape from Death for Three in Early Morning Fire

Use Rope to Save Selves at Residence

Three persons barely escaped with their lives in a sensational fire at 312 Ottawa Avenue during the wee hours of the morning today. The fire was discovered at 1:30 a. m. and was not brought under control until about 4:00 a. m. Every fireman in Dixon, both city and rural were called to duty. Many volunteers reported in addition, and aided by some yeoman help from the police department the blaze was kept from spreading to other homes in the area.

The three persons who had a close call with death were Mr. and Mrs. George Horton and their daughter, Carol, age 9. Mr. Horton is a Dixon mail-carrier. They lived on a third floor apartment of the building and were sound asleep when the fire was discovered by Mrs. Ethel Hawkins who lived on the second floor of the house.

Exit Is Blocked
When Mrs. Hawkins discovered the fire she screamed to attract the attention of other tenants. Mr. Horton on the third floor heard her screams and smelled smoke at the same time. He dashed to the single entrance and exit his apartment had and it was blocked by leaping flames.

About a week ago Horton foresaw just such a situation and bought a long piece of rope to be used in an emergency as a fire escape. He threw the rope over a window sill, anchored it in the room, and aided by Tony Bevilacqua, local drive-in operator and Walter C. Knack, Jr., passers-by, Mrs. Horton and her 9 year old daughter were assisted to the ground. It was extremely difficult for Mrs. Horton who has been nursing a broken arm.

In being lowered to the ground both Mr. and Mrs. Horton received severe rope burns on their hands. Dr. Edward Murphy was summoned and the couple was given first-aid treatment at a neighbor's house.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Spotts, living on the first floor were awakened by the screams of Mrs. Hawkins.

Find Fire at 1:30
In an interview this morning at 4:00 o'clock with a Telegraph reporter, Mrs. Hawkins, who is an X-ray technician at the Dixon State hospital, stated that she had been resting on a davenport of her apartment since early in the evening. She had been listening to radio programs during the evening. After listening to a program that signed off at 1:30 daylight savings time she turned off her radio and walked into her kitchen. The rear of the house was ablaze, and as she went into the kitchen the glass of the door broke from the intense heat. When the glass broke a draft was created and the flames licked out at Mrs. Hawkins, burning her on the arms and neck. She received a bruise on the nose also, when

Former Priest Gets Married; Deputies Guard

Phoenix, Ariz., Aug. 15—(AP)—A former Catholic priest and his bride are honeymooning today in California. They were married at Buckeye, Ariz., 35 miles west of here, Saturday night before 700 guests and a guard of pistol-toting sheriff's deputies.

The bridegroom, Emmett McLaughlin, had asked that the deputies be assigned to prevent any trouble. Deputy Sheriff Woody Killman said.

None materialized as the 12-year-old hospital superintendent and his bride, Mary Davis, 34, a striking brunette divorcee, were married before Superior Court Judge Charles Bernstein, a member of the Jewish faith.

The couple met at St. Monica hospital, where McLaughlin is superintendent. He founded the institution and withdrew from the priesthood rather than accept transfer elsewhere.

By BRYN GRIFFITHS
(City Editor, Evening Telegraph)

An automobile accident at 6:20 Saturday night three miles south of Dixon on state highway 26, that snuffed out the lives of three Harmon residents, today resulted in a manslaughter charge being preferred against Mrs. Mary Ann Bohn, a driver of one of the two cars involved in the tragedy. A charge of driving while drunk will be filed against Mr. Roy D. Fox, owner of the Lincoln convertible which was driven by Mrs. Bohn. Mrs.

HUNDREDS SEE CARS
Reuters Towing Service, Logan Street, was a focal point for several hundred visitors late Saturday night and throughout the day Sunday. The object of their visits was to see the two wrecks of cars involved in the Route 26 accident Saturday night.

At times traffic to Reuters was blocked for hundreds of feet. Crowds milled around the cars by the hundreds.

Bohn and Fox were together at the time of the accident. Killed in the crash were:

Mrs. Mary Ellen McCormick, 62, Harmon. She is the mother of Mrs. Fred Chiverton, 212 S. Dement Ave., Dixon.

TRIPLE FUNERAL RITES
Triple funeral services will be held Tuesday morning at 9:00 o'clock from the Jones Funeral Home here, and at 9:30 from St. Patrick's church, Harmon, for the three victims of Saturday night's automobile crash.

Father David Murphy will officiate at the church services and also at the Holy Cross cemetery, Harmon.

Sublette, head injuries and lacerations.

Mrs. Mary Ann Bohn, 24, Franklin Grove, head and face lacerations.

The crash occurred three miles south of the Dixon city limits, almost in front of the Oscar Matzinger farm home on Route 26.

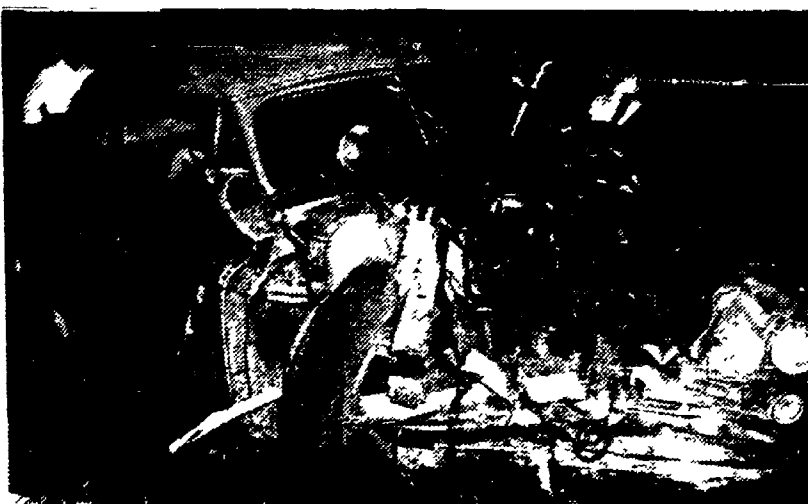

State police who arrived on the scene of the crash shortly after it happened, gave this version of the accident.

Version of Crash
Donna Powers was driving a 2-door Chevrolet sedan from Harmon to Dixon, with her sister, Mary Kay, Mrs. Mary McCormick and Joan Lally as passengers. Mrs. Mary Ann Bohn was driving a new Lincoln convertible from Dixon, heading south. Ray D. Fox, owner of the Lincoln was a passenger.

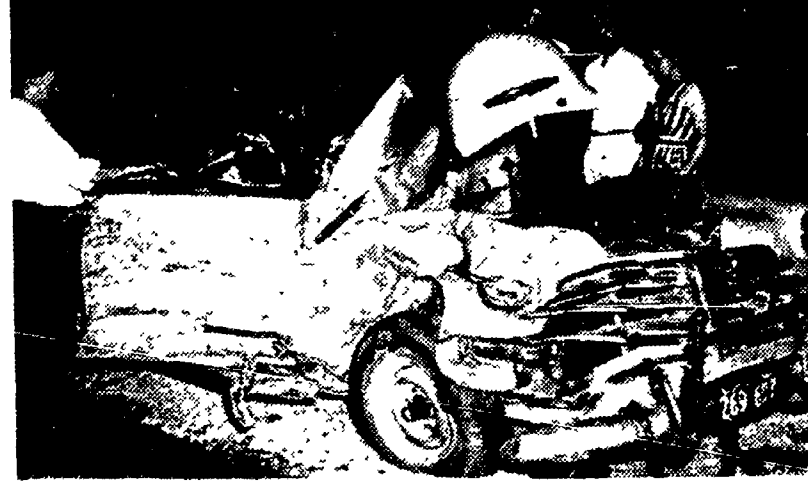

It was learned later that only a few minutes before the crash he had been driving but turned the wheel over to Mrs. Bohn.

In negotiating a curve on the highway at a point just south of the railroad crossing and adjoining the Matzinger farm, the Lincoln swung wide to the top of the turn, getting into the north bound lane of traffic in which the Powers car was approaching. The Powers girl evidently tried to cut over to the left side of the road in an attempt to avoid the crash Mrs. Bohn evidently made a desperate attempt to get back onto

Molests Girl in Mt. Morris; 'Carny' Held

Mt. Morris—Prompt action by Police Chief Harold Palmer of Mt. Morris resulted in the arrest of Lawrence Leavitt, 35, concessionaire accompanying a carnival to Mt. Morris Saturday evening following a reported morose conduct with a ten-year-old girl residing in the city.

The child's father reported to Chief Palmer that his daughter had told him that a carnival follower had taken indecent liberties with her near the carnival grounds about 6:30 Saturday evening. The girl was able to furnish a good description of the man, who was arrested about 15 minutes later by police.

According to Chief Palmer, Leavitt admitted his act and he was taken before Justice of the Peace Raymond Berty Saturday evening where Chief Palmer filed a charge of taking indecent liberties with a minor. He was held under bond of $5,000 and delivered to the Ogle county jail at Oregon. Leavitt, Chief Palmer stated to-day, has a record and served a term at Terre Haute, Ind., on a charge of tampering with a federal check. It is expected that he will be held to the Ogle county grand jury.

Father Shoots Three in Family; Then Self

Lyons, Kas., Aug. 15—(AP)—"Daddy shot grandpa and grandma and mommy, and daddy's dead, too."

Three eldest of four children, one to seven years old, thus described to Sheriff Clarence Patterson a shooting in their grandparents' home.

The father, Donald Bunce, 25, died yesterday in a hospital. His wife, Mrs. Virginia Bunce, 24, believed to have only a slight chance of recovery. She was shot above the heart. They were estranged.

The grandparents, Wilbur Shoemaker, 61, and his wife, Anna, 58, died after Bunce invaded the home late Saturday night carrying a shotgun and with two pistols stuck in his belt.

Patterson said Bunce had threatened to "get the whole outfit" if he did not obtain custody of the children.

Ogle Official Charged with Fund Shortage

A reported deficit of $2,653.90 in the records of a former master in Chancery of Ogle county was under investigation at Oregon today. An order has been entered in the Ogle county circuit court ordering John B. Hayes of Rochelle, former master in chancery and present assisting attorney general for Ogle county, to turn over the amount to the present master in chancery, Frank Kerr. Investigation into the records revealed an answer which has been filed in Ogle county circuit court by the law firm of Warner & Warner of Dixon who represent Atty. Hayes.

The difficulty arose in the case of Carroll Cooley of Freeport who is the plaintiff in an action against George Rummel, deceased, and others who are named defendants, to settle an estate. According to the answer which was filed Aug. 12, 1949, by Atty. George Nichols of the Dixon law firm with Circuit Clerk Homer D. Alshouse at Oregon, Hayes denies the allegations and states:

Hayes Answer
"That upon information and belief he says that sums of money were not paid to him personally but were delivered in the form of a check which was subsequently endorsed by some other person and placed in one of the bank accounts kept and maintained by the respondent in the Citizens State bank of Mt. Morris; that upon taking office as master of chancery, the respondent engaged the services of Martin V. Peterman to prepare all necessary pleadings and reports to be filed in all cases referred to the respondent as master in chancery and to furnish the respondent with a bookkeeping service and about his accounts of all fees collected by him as master in chancery and that John B. Hayes did pay to Martin V. Peterman one-half of all fees collected by him as master in chancery; that said accounting services were performed by a certain Beebe Brown, an employee of Martin V. Peterman."

Smuggling Is Hinted in 5% Senate Probe

Washington, Aug. 15—(AP)—Senator McCarthy (R-Wis) said today an employee of the company reported to have paid for deep freezers sent to Mrs. Harry S. Truman and a number of other notables had engaged in "attempted smuggling activities."

McCarthy emphasized that he does not think there was anything "even remotely improper" on Mrs. Truman's part.

The Wisconsin senator made his statement at the opening of today's five percent hearing. The senate investigating committee is trying to find out whether improper influence with government officials figures in the activities of persons who charge fees for help in landing government contracts.

Albert J. Gross, Milwaukee manufacturer, told the committee last week that his company sent deep freezers to Maj. Gen. Harry H. Vaughan, President Truman's military aide and a number of other prominent Washingtonians. He said the units were paid for by the Albert Veiley Company, a Chicago perfume house.

In a statement to newsmen Saturday Vaughan said two old friends of his, one of whom is

Four I-H Local Unions Vote for Strike, Report

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—Four locals of the CIO United Farm Equipment union have voted in favor of a strike against the International Harvester Company. Two locals at Canton, one at Chicago and one at East Moline voted Friday and Saturday. The East Moline local comprised office workers; production workers have yet to vote.

Gerald Fielde, chairman of the Fe Harvester council, said strike votes will be taken next Tuesday in eight other Harvester plants, four in Chicago and one each in Rock Falls and Rock Island, Ill.; Richmond, Ind., and Auburn, N. Y.

However, union officials in Auburn denied their locals would take part in a strike vote. A statement carrying the denial was issued by the unions' emergency committee, formed after Harvester recently announced plans to close its Auburn plant.

The Louisville, Ky., local voted for a strike last April, and the local president said the vote still stands.

The strike votes resulted from failure of the company and union to reach an agreement on pension and wage demands.

Bawdy House Brawl Costs GI His Life

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—An argument in a bawdy house cost a soldier his life last night. Pfc. Edward Garner, 21, Chicago, was shot through the heart. Russel Behrens, an assistant state's attorney, said conflicting accounts of Garner's death were given by his companion, Pvt. Andrew F. Mena, 21, of Modesto, Calif., and residents of the south side apartment where the shooting occurred.

Eugene Spears, 37, who with his wife, Grace, 26, and Mena, was held without charge for questioning, first reported to police the soldiers were robbers.

Behrens said both spears and Mena agreed that the soldiers had come to the apartment with Spears' consent to meet Mrs. Spears. He said Spears admitted his wife was a prostitute and he solicited for her.

Mena said the trouble started when he advised Garner not to give Spears a five dollar bill. A heated argument developed, and Spears suddenly drew a .38 caliber pistol from his pocket and fired, killing Garner.

Spears' story, according to the assistant state's attorney, was that the two soldiers had attempted to rob him.

Eugene Cassidy, a detective who seized Mena as the soldier hid in the fourth floor hallway of the apartment building after the shooting, said Garner was unarmed and Mena carried only a small pen knife.

Both soldiers were assigned to Headquarters company, Fifth army.

Training camp rosters of the All-American Conference grid teams list 197 rookies and 209 veterans.

Gets TV Reception From 1,200 Miles

St. Cloud, Fla. — (AP) — Ray Charleston, radio engineer, doesn't worry about a lack of television sending stations on the south. He gets just about any kind of reception on his set here. He's logged the stations he connected with and they include just about every one up to 1,200 miles away—except Miami.

Miami has a 78-foot elevation above sea level, with a 60-foot tower. Reason for the reception here, he says, is tropospheric propagation, a high-powered way of saying that the sky wave of television is freakishly reflected in this particular spot.

Gunmen Get $41,500 From Country Store

Salem Crossroads, S. C., Aug. 15—(AP)—The search for two gunmen who held up a county general store here and escaped with $41,500 Sunday night spread to Charlotte, N. C., 75 miles to the north.

Sheriff E. K. Babb of Fairfield county said the storekeeper, Wash Ladd, told him the gunmen entered the store just before closing time, bound him, and got the money from his pockets, the register, and a tin box in his upstairs bedroom.

Ladd was quoted as saying one of the robbers opened the box containing $40,000 and said "this is what we're looking for." He said one of the gunmen wore a mask.

The New York, Baltimore and Buffalo teams of the All-American Conference will play exhibition games with the Charlotte, N. C. Clippers.

Reds Say White Paper Admission of Failure

Nanking, Aug. 15—Washington's White Paper was labeled by the Chinese Communists today as a confession of failure by the American government of a policy of "interference and aggression" in China.

In the first official reaction, the Communist Hsinhua news agency asserted the whole world benefited by the White Paper's publication because it exposed "an insatiable American desire for interference and aggression in the affairs of others."

Two Peorians Held in Death at Night Club

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 15—(AP)—Two men have been charged with murder and another with assault with intent to kill in the death of a Peoria construction worker after a night club brawl.

The victim was Lester P. Hall, 33, employed on a Peoria project as labor foreman for the Wulfsberg Construction Co., Chicago. He died in St. Francis hospital yesterday after the mass fight Saturday night.

Earl McDowell, owner of the "Talk Of The Town" night club, and Alonzo Berkeley, an ex-convict, were charged with murder. Edwin A. Haussam, a bartender at the club, was charged with assault with intent to kill.

Eight other persons were held without charge.

City Detective Fred Montgomery said witnesses told him the fight started when Hall and two companions entered the night club looking for Haussam. Then, he said, the following took place:

Hall struck a bartender who stopped them. McDowell rushed up and Hall struck him in the mouth. McDowell knocked Hall down, then repeatedly kicked him in the head while he was down. Barkley hit Hall with a bar stool. Montgomery said witnesses told him Haussam hit Hall with a ball bat, but the bartender said he swung the bat but missed.

Moscow — (AP) — Moscow is about to open a new group of restaurants and stores. They will represent various Soviet nationalities. "Ogonok," the Soviet picture magazine, recently carried drawings of the store and the restaurant of one of these nationalities—the Armenians. It appears from these drawings that great care is being taken to see that they are designed so as to typify the art and architecture of Armenia.

Livestock Judging Moves Into 'High Gear' at Fair

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 15—(AP)—Livestock judging moved into high gear at the Illinois state fair today with more than 7,500 cattle, swine, sheep, goats and horses entered in the open competition.

The day was set aside for flying farmers and fair officials said 1,000 airborne farmers would take part in the program. Other attractions today included the start of the high school band contest and a five day card of grand circuit harness racing.

An estimated 112,000 persons were on hand yesterday for the veterans day events — largest crowd of the fair's first three days but well below last year's attendance estimates.

Peoria Legion Post No. 2 nosed out Lincoln Post 263 for top honors in the class A band division. South Shore Legion Post No. 388 of Chicago was the class B band winner, with Aurora Post No. 84 second.

Abingdon Legion Post 361 grabbed first in men's drill team competition, finishing ahead of the Red Williams Post entry from Bloomington.

Sharvin Legion Post of North Chicago was adjudged best in the girls' drill team event. Second went to the Smea Strutter girls of the Waukegan V.F.W.

Winning Clown Band

The winning clown band was the entry of the Virden Legion Post, with the Mason City Legion Post second and the Peoria 40 and 8 Post No. 2 coming in third.

The main sports event of the day was the bocce ball contest. A team composed of Gene Picocchi, Hillsboro, and Gino Casolari, Raymond, outdistanced the 61 others participating. The winners defeated Carl Fauth, Pekin, and George Starcevic, who took second.

The blue ribbon for the best basket of pears shown at the fair was taken by Lester Bustard, a Moline truck farmer. G. W. Wieneke and son of Fieldon had the runnerup.

H. C. Durland of Mt. Prospect won the sweepstakes award in the Illinois gladiolus society annual show.

Duroc Barrow Champ

Early livestock judging produced a grand champion in swine competition for the Lehman farms of Pleasant Plains. The winner was a Duroc barrow. The reserve grand championship went to Jim Monahan, 17, of Forrest, for his Hampshire entry.

The 225 pound Duroc grand champion was sold at auction for $2 a pound. The top bidder was A. J. Stenger, president of the Springfield feed products company.

Belleville exhibitor carried off the fair's peach championship. The blue ribbon was taken by Alvin Eckert farms with a basket of hale-haven peaches.

Proposed Farm Compromise Law Lowers Some Supports

Washington, Aug. 15—(AP)—Senators learned today a proposed compromise farm bill would lower existing government price supports for wheat, corn, cotton, peanuts and most grains.

Offsetting these, however, would be higher government price floors under beef, hogs, lambs, milk, butterfat, wool and other commodities.

New Parity Formula

The changes in levels of government supports would result from a new parity formula included in the compromise bill worked out by Senator Anderson, (D-NM), former secretary of agriculture.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices, designed to give the farmer a purchasing power equal to that of a previous favorable period.

Anderson's compromise bill has been approved by a seven-member agriculture subcommittee. It is scheduled for action by the full 13-member farm legislative group next week.

Agriculture department experts have supplied senators with a comparison between existing supports—at 90 per cent of the present parity formula—and those for next year under the proposed revised system.

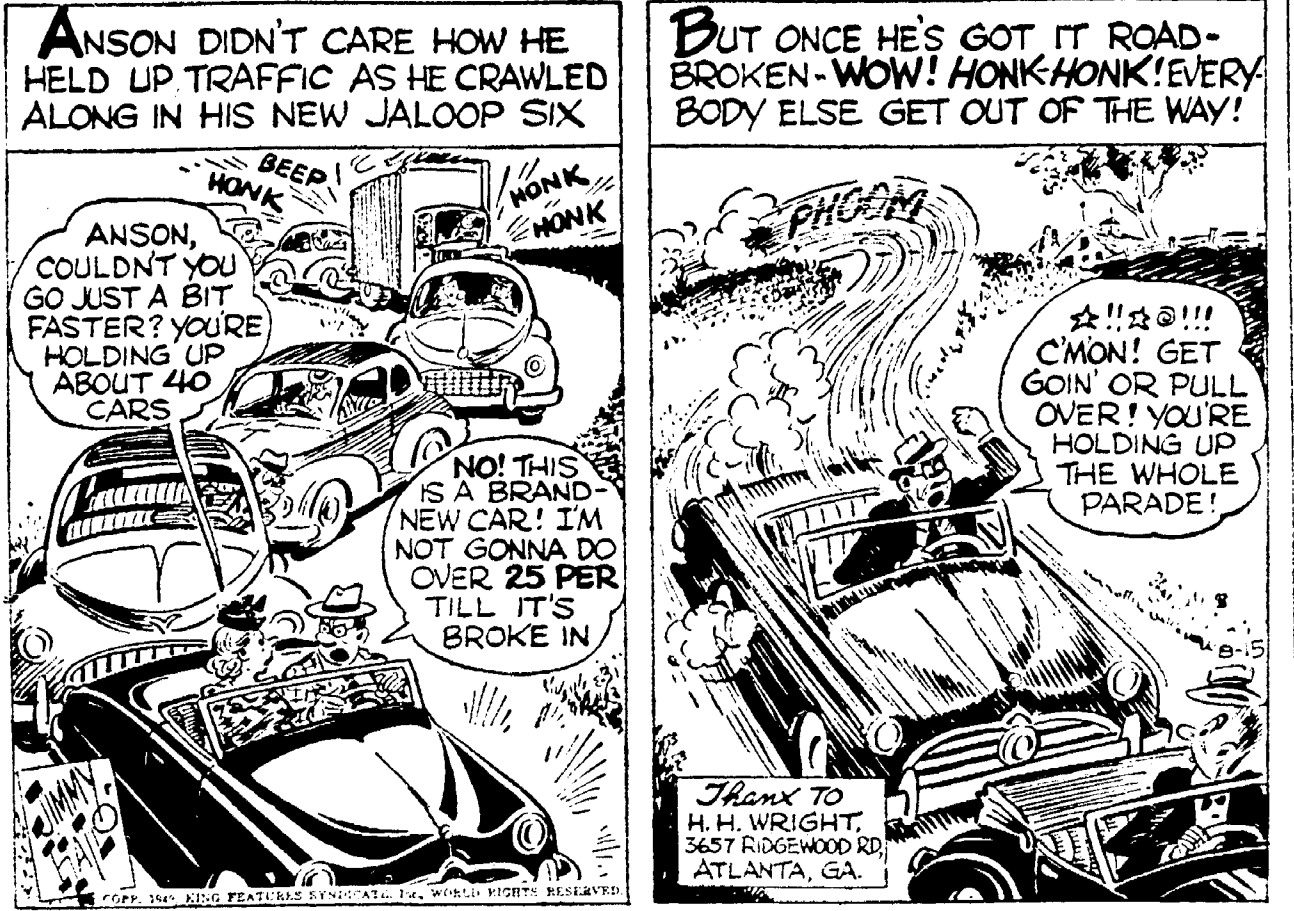

Corn Is Reduced

Compared with existing supports—which the house has voted to continue another year—what would be down 10 cents a bushel, corn 5 cents lower, and cotton down 136 cents for $4.50 for a 500 pound bale.

On the other side, the senate bill would support lambs at $1.10 a hundredweight higher, beef cattle up $3.70 and hogs $1.60 higher.

Whole milk supports would be up 58 cents or more a hundredweight and butterfat 7½ cents higher a pound.

Barkley Has His Little Joke on Marriage Rumor

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 15—(AP)—"Operation Veep" went off schedule here yesterday—without a hitch, romantic or otherwise.

With upwards of 10,000 persons on hand for the dedication of the Paducah-McCracken county airport as Barkley Field, Vice President Alben Barkley, 71, made only a jocular reference to his rumored romance with Mrs. Carleton Hadley, St. Louis widow.

While crowning his six-year-old granddaughter, Dorothy Anne Barkley, "Queen of Queens," he solemnly told the crowd:

"I was quoted as saying that I was going to crown a queen of my own some day. I couldn't say then what I had in mind, although there was much speculation."

Then, pausing dramatically while Mrs. Hadley sat on the speaker's platform nearby, he continued:

"I am happy to announce that here is the little queen of my own," and smiling broadly, he stopped and placed a crown and a kiss on his granddaughter.

Barkley's remark that some day he "might crown a queen of my own" was made when he crowned the queen of the Culpepper, Va., bi-centennial celebration recently.

The vice-president and Mrs. Hadley returned to St. Louis in his private plane late yesterday, then left for Washington later in the day.

Outlets Broadened for Gruen Watches

Cincinnati, Aug. 15—(AP)—The Gruen Watch company announced today it would start distribution this fall of its watches through department stores for the first time in the 75-year history of the firm.

President Benjamin S. Katz explained that heretofore the company's product has been sold only through retail jewelers. He said the company has been able, however, to increase production by expanding its movement manufacturing plants and now will be able to deal through certain department stores.

FBI 'Public Enemy No. 1' Is Arrested

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 15—(AP)—A man tabbed by the FBI as "Public Enemy No. 1" was held here today in connection with the fatal shooting of one policeman and the wounding of another last night.

Police Chief Carl Heustis identified the man as Earl D. Bircham, 45, and said he was charged with murder and malicious shooting. A woman identified by Heustis as Bircham's wife, Mrs. June Bircham, 26, was held without charge.

Bank Robber, Too

An FBI circular said Bircham was wanted for fleeing Kansas to avoid confinement for robbery and had been charged with bank robbery in Tennessee.

He was captured 15 minutes after the officers were fired upon as they approached an automobile they had chased as a speeder.

Patrolman John H. Tenneyson, 32, died shortly after being taken to General hospital. Patrolman John A. Ross, 22, was reported in a critical condition at the hospital today. He was shot twice under the heart.

No. 1 Enemy

Fred Hallford, special agent in charge of the Louisville office of the FBI, said Bircham is "recognized by the FBI as Public Enemy No. 1."

Hallford said Bircham twice escaped the Kansas state penitentiary after a robbery conviction. He is wanted in connection with several holdups totaling more than $55,000 in Nashville, police there said recently.

Typhoid Epidemic In France Is Reported

Paris, Aug. 15—(AP)—Drought has led to an outbreak of typhoid fever in France, the health ministry said today.

The ministry said that, while the outbreak is not of epidemic proportions, it had ordered a supply of the drug chloromycetin flown from New York to combat the disease.

There is little or no typhoid in Paris itself.

Cases of housebreaking in Plymouth, England, were traced to a gang of children. None of the children was more than 13 years of age, and the leader was a boy of 6.

What Do We Get for a Higher Gas Tax?

There is some fancy high pressure salesmanship being exerted in behalf of a special session of the legislature to pass a bill providing an increase of one cent a gallon on gasoline to be used in building express highways inside of Chicago city limits and other metropolitan streets and to improve some of the principal highways between the greater cities downstate. The program may fail, however, because there are many members of the legislature who recognize the importance of the strictly country areas.

Great cities become great because of the back country that feeds trade and business to the metropolitan areas. Chicago is not only selfish but short sighted when it asks downstate taxes to help build its streets to the exclusion of state help for the country areas. It is the traffic from those country areas that the big city must have to keep it growing, or even going.

Heavy traffic that slows up the streams of cars in Chicago is an annoyance of course but the slight delay there is not to be compared with the plight of the fellow on the side road in the country who cannot get his car beyond his own front gate. He is also a resident of this state.

If the question of new legislation to raise taxes for roads comes up, this 35th senatorial district should examine the program carefully and see what we are to receive for our increased taxes. Do they plan to modernize and double track the old Lincoln Highway from Geneva to Fulton as we have been asking for many, many years. You know, when the Lincoln Highway was first built it was the first paved road to reach out across the continent, and the route was chosen because it was the most direct route west from Chicago and served the greatest number of people. That rule still holds and the Lincoln Highway is the logical location for a four-lane route from Chicago west.

Does this new program include the building of the four-lane highway between Dixon and Sterling that has been on paper in the state highway department for so long?

The publicity we have seen regarding the proposal does nothing at all for secondary roads or country roads. We are open to reason but so far have seen nothing that recommends the plan to this district and we believe that the masterminds who are engineering the project would be smart to see to it that the country taxpayers who are to help pay the bill are cut in on some benefits in the way of roadbuilding.

Change of Location Not Always Good for Asthma

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

The term "asthma" was used by the ancients to describe a condition that has been known for nearly 400 years before the birth of Christ. It means, literally, hard breathing. It was not until nearly the end of the 17th century that the word, however, was used in any other sense than to describe a person who was gasping for breath.

Signs of asthma are wheezing, coughing, and a feeling of tightness in the chest. The physician is helped in the diagnosis by listening to the chest through a stethoscope, by examining X-ray films and by using a spirometer.

The cause of the trouble is principally in the bronchi, which are the small tubes leading from the main breathing tube, or trachea, into the lung tissue itself. The walls of these bronchi become thickened, narrowed and filled with mucus.

COUGHING IS A SIGNAL

When the bronchial tubes are inflamed, contractions or spasms which still further narrow the space through which the air can pass. This narrowing explains the shortness of breath—it is simply that not enough air gets through to the lungs. The coughing associated with asthma is nature's way of trying to enlarge the openings.

Asthma is usually due to allergy, that is, to sensitivity of the pa-

ANSWER: Such infections are caused by germs. They are far less common than formerly due to the careful precautions taken by physicians at the time of child-birth.

America's Card Authority

One of the most pleasing personalities I have met in quite a while is Don DeFore. He was in New York recently, having just completed a part in the movie, "My Friend Irma."

Don comes from Cedar Rapids, Ia. Even as a youngster his ambition was to become an actor. He trained at the Pasadena School of the Theater and in 1938 Oscar Hammerstein bought the show he was in. They brought five of the cast to New York where they played at the Vanderbilt Theater for four weeks.

Don wants to come to New York in the fall and do a Broadway show. I told him at that time we would have to arrange a bridge game with the rest of the cast of the picture. Don predicted that when I got through with "Irma," I would probably give up bridge entirely. He went on to say, however, that no matter what "Irma" did, I could rest assured it would work out to her advantage, as the results in today's hand did.

We will put "Irma" in the North position. You may think it strange that South bid a club instead of a spade, but with this type of hand you generally will find the expert bidding a club instead of the five-card spade suit. This is done for the purpose of making it possible for the partner to bid a major suit.

In this case, "Irma," having a five-card spade suit, correctly bid a spade. When South bid four spades, "Irma" leaped to six spades, which could be called optimistic.

When West put the king of hearts on the opening lead, declarer won with the ace. The jack of spades was led. West won with the queen. West unfortunately returned a heart. Declarer now cashed the remaining 11 tricks, letting the opponents' ace of diamonds go to sleep.

Keep Out of 'Phone Range' on Vacation, Says Esther

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

By ESTHER WILLIAMS
(For Erskine Johnson, who is on vacation)

Hollywood—(NEA)—This being that time of year when everyone has vacations on their minds, I am no exception. But the moral of this tale I am about to unfold is—never take a vacation at home. Since Mr. Bell invented the telephone, the words "vacation" and "telephone" just don't go together.

I hadn't had a real vacation for so long that when I learned I was going to have a baby in August, I thought, "Oh, boy! Think of the days off I'm going to have! This year I'm going to have a real vacation!"

And visions of long, lazy days at our little house at Acapulco, or at the family cabin on a little island in the chain of lakes in Wisconsin rushed through my mind.

For the past few years every time I would finish a picture, Ben would be busy on radio and unable to get away, and for me there seemed always to be publicity pictures, personal appearances, etc., as long as I was within reach of a telephone.

But this time I knew no one would want to take my picture or ask me to make a personal appearance, so I was a cinch to get a real vacation.

PLANS THWARTED

So what happens? I had no sooner finished "Neptune's Daughter" than Ben gets a big television show all his own. Well, maybe we could still go in the middle of the week. But immediately Ben is signed to narrate and sing in the "Salute to Gershwin" at the Coconut Grove—and that's every night!

Well, I hope you're going away—far away—on your vacation. Erskine, for here is what happens when you spend one day at home. This is how a typical day goes:

The doorbell rings at 8:30 a. m. and it is a man to fix the telephone which is out of order (why didn't we leave it that way?) and it's in the bedroom so we have to get up. The workman has a hard time fixing it because it rages every ten minutes from then on.

Why is it the people who want you to donate to their pet charity, buy an ad in a trade paper, appear at their swimming meet, always call early in the morning?

Finally Ben has to go to town on business and I decide to take a swim—quickly before anything else happens. I've just started to relax and enjoy myself when I look up and there is a perfectly strange man standing there staring at me. When I inquire as to his business, he fumbles for a while and finally says, "I was just passing and saw you. You don't mind if I watch, do you?" So there goes my swim.

PHONE AGAIN

About that time a photographer from the studio arrives. Oh yes—they found a way! That takes the best part of the afternoon and then it's time to start dinner. By the time I get Ben fed and off to work, the phone rings again and it's a columnist wanting to know if it's true we're "piffing."

I settle down to read the script of my next picture, "Duchess of Idaho," and finally go to bed about 10 o'clock dead tired. I'm just dozing off into dreamland when that familiar bell rings again.

I say "Hello" and a voice says "Esther?" I say "Yes" and the voice says "Thanks a lot—I just want a bet that I could get you on the telephone."

Sometimes I wonder what I would say to Mr. Bell if I ever met him face to face.

HOLLYWOOD LAUGHS:

Ukie Sharon is telling about the two gurus who met in a coruscule. One said: "I'm worried." "Why?" asked the other, and the first guru replied: "I think I've got penicillin."

Oops, sorry. Nazimova's former secretary, Glascia Marshall, insists the star always was a paying guest at the Garden of Allah Hotel.

Victor Borge is tickling audiences with a new routine called "The Unstated Symphony." It's calculated to drive Sunday afternoon music commentators crazy.

Battleship Power Rejected by Perth

Perth, Australia—(AP)—Perth nearly got the old British battleship Royal Sovereign, 30,000 tons, to keep the city's lights burning. However, the cost was too great.

Perth needs a new power station, and this will not be furnished until next year. The city also had had blackouts because of the Australian coal miners' strike.

The price for the Royal Sovereign is $655,000 plus $226,000 for towing to Perth. The State Government thought over the idea, then decided against it.

What is the relationship between Phil Murray and the CIO and Harry Bridges?

(COPYRIGHT, 1949, KING FEATURES SYNDICATE, INC.)

New York, Aug. 15—Philip Murray, the president of the CIO, and other bosses of this evil power have decided to reverse themselves and the "policy" of their organization and cooperate with the government in the pending prosecutions of Harry Bridges. The charges against Bridges allege perjury, conspiracy to obtain his citizenship by fraud, and underlying these offenses, membership in an organization dedicated to the violent overthrow of the government. On conviction, Bridges would be sent to prison and after serving his time he would be deported to Australia.

The fact that the rulers of the CIO now desire to help the government against Bridges might seem creditable to them and the CIO. It is, however, only further proof that unionism in the United States is a menace to government and freedom and should be wiped out as a rogue. The contention that unionism is fundamentally bad and never can reform will be resented by persons ignorant of the facts and by others who know the facts but lack the courage to take a painfully unpopular position. It is a fact nevertheless.

Influence Is Vaat

The union influence in politics has been a vast, progressive corruption. It practices all the vicious abuses of money-power that were condemned as a menace to freedom when they were practised by corporations. Their entrenched bosses, absolutely indifferent to any interest but their own, have a code no better than that of the underworld gangster. Yet they control about fifteen million jobs and possess the power to throttle all industry.

Taking them at their own word, any abridgement of their power, as through the Taft-Hartley law, or any compulsory revision of their totalitarian constitutions, "Fascism." It follows then that there is no room for unionism in a free nation. To exist at all, they must retain all their business. Obviously, something else must be developed, which would reconcile workers with employers in mutual interests, economic, moral and patriotic and serve all the people and the nation. The very fact that all union professionals, and all the parasites of new deal and fair deal politics who have lived well off this corruption are instantly alert to damn all substitutes means only that they resent any threat to their own racket.

To anyone who does not comprehend the cynicism, the utter dishonesty of this institution, an understanding that comes not easily to the person of normal honesty, the present reversal of the CIO's position on Bridges is so shocking as to be unbelievable. To the student of this corruption, however, the explanation is simple. These people have fallen out as predatory elements inevitably do. Murray and his crowd have decided to help the government merely as a convenient course in a fight with an opponent.

Joined Commie Cry

In the last proceeding to deport Bridges as a Communist, the same Murray joined the Communists in their cries of "persecution," "union-busting" and "labor-baiting." The explanation is as plain as it is evil. In those earlier days it was the dishonest, unpatriotic advantageous policy of the CIO to cooperate with Communists, making common cause with them down to some microscopic point of bloody uprising at which the non-Communists could pretend that they ceased to go along.

Down to that point the Murrays could conscientiously help and receive help from sworn enemies of the United States. This was the defense of Bridges. This was the deciding point which Justice William O. Douglas wrote into the opinion of the supreme court overthrowing all the law and evidence which had held Bridges deportable in three lower courts and in the decision of the attorney general. He wasn't a Communist. Merely worked with them for common ends. If revolution had come, Bridges might have refrained from blowing up dams or shooting patriotic citizens from ambush. It wasn't even asserted that he would have refrained. It was just

Now we find Murray and the controlling goons in the head office conspiring to come over to the government's side of the new case although that case is based on the same facts and incidents. Why? Is it that they are now patriotic? If so were they unpatriotic then?

I exclude patriotism from my conjectures. They simply fell out with Bridges over political adherence. They supported Truman and Bridges went with Henry Wallace in 1948. Political freedom is as horrid to high-power unionism, so they couldn't abide this. Therefore Bridges is an evil character, subject to deportation today for the same facts which a few years ago made him a martyr to the cause of organized labor.

Murray is one of the highest officers, one of the most powerful men in the union racket. Such as his morals are, he is, for an alarming fact, one of the cleanest men in the whole corruption.

It's a Smart Husband Who Knows When to Say 'Yes'

There are times in every husband's life when it pays to be a "yes-man."

In any and all of the following situations it's the better part of wisdom for a husband to agree with his wife, instead of expressing his own ideas.

One is when she models a new dress or hat she bought on sale and can't return. If he says he doesn't like it or doubts her enthusiasm with faint praise, then his wife is never going to want to wear it—and his money has been wasted.

Another is when she points out some flaw in a woman who is getting more than her share of masculine attention. This is no time to remark: "I don't see why all you women have it in for her," or act unconvinced by the criticism. Agree without reservations.

When she has a grievance against a third person is no time to strike a judicial attitude and open-mindedly see the other person's point of view. At this moment the point of view your wife wants you to see is her own outraged one.

LET HER TELL OWN STORY

Or take this common situation. She is leaving out part of a story in order to make it sound a little more impressive. This is not the time to jump in with, "Why don't you tell the whole story?" or "That's not the way I remember it."

When she spends the day shifting furniture around and says expectantly: "Don't you think it looks better this way?" is typical. A man's natural reaction is always: "What was wrong with the way it was?" But that is mighty exasperating to a woman.

The payoff is when you come home and find she has had her crowning glory chopped off. It may look like thunder, but if she is making even a pretense at liking it the "new way," don't let her down. It's too late now to tell her how much better you this is wealth

that's REALLY shared

Just a railroad track, part of 6,500 miles of the Illinois Central facing the length and breadth of Mid-America.

This is real wealth—working wealth. Wealth that works to bring you food, clothing, your home, all the things you live with and enjoy. Wealth that works to pay taxes to help support your schools. Wealth that spends money in your community. Wealth that last year paid out $153,000,000 in wages to 40,000 workers.

It's wealth that's really shared—because everybody in Mid-America benefits from the useful work it performs.

This Illinois Central wealth is the kind that has made America rich. Without it, our natural resources would only trickle from mines, forests and farms, and our vast industrial plants would starve for want of raw materials.

The Illinois Central has $700,000,000 invested in working wealth—an investment that makes possible an average freight rate of a fraction more than 1¢ per ton per mile. This same investment makes possible a wage rate more than double the rate of twenty years ago.

To keep this wealth in efficient running order, more wealth must constantly be added. The Illinois Central last year put $23,000,000 into new equipment and property. For we are determined that our work shall continue to serve your friendship and patronage.

man; that subsequent to turning over his files to Frank Kerr, master in chancery, the respondent was informed that the said George Gronewald had made a payment of $2,653.90 without the knowledge of the respondent.

First Knowledge

This, the respondent stated, was the first knowledge which he had of any irregularities in his accounts; that the respondent immediately commenced an investigation to ascertain the cause of the shortage in his account in this cause and discovered numerous irregularities in his accounts, not only in this cause but in other causes during his term as master and that these irregularities were connected and inter-related and that various debits and credits were made to the accounts which should have been separately maintained.

All funds received by the respondent as master in chancery, the answer stated, were kept and maintained in special bank accounts and that no part of the funds received by the respondent had ever been commingled with any of his personal funds and that the respondent had no funds in his hands belonging to any persons entitled to said funds by reason of his Mastership.

The respondent stated he has not completed his investigation but upon information and belief alleges that the shortages in his accounts has resulted in the following manner:

Charges Forgery

That at various times during the period that he held office as master in chancery some person or persons whose identity is presently unknown to the respondent obtained funds from the separate bank accounts maintained by the respondent as master in chancery by issuing forged checks drawn upon said accounts and by wrongfully obtaining possession of valid checks issued by the respondent and forging the endorsement of the payee thereon and that the banks in which said funds were kept and maintained negligently honored such checks; that by the various transfer of funds between accounts by a person or persons unknown to the respondent, the shortages in the various accounts were concealed from the knowledge of the respondent; that a shortage was thereby created in an inactive account by the Citizens State bank of Mt. Morris which had been established for the deposit of other funds; that during the spring of 1949 it became necessary to make distribution of the funds in said cause and that immediately prior thereto the check of George Gronewald was delivered to some person or persons unknown to the respondent and that person forged the endorsement of the respondent upon said check and without knowledge of the respondent deposited the said funds in the Citizens State bank to conceal the shortage existing in that account whereas said check should have been deposited in the Forrester bank with other funds in that cause; that some person or persons has obtained the cancelled checks of the respondent and has concealed or destroyed them.

Complete Investigation

A complete investigation of this matter will require a detailed audit of all books of account of the master in chancery; the pleadings in each cause and various accounts be kept and maintained by banks in which funds were deposited, and the submission of numerous documents to handwriting experts.

The respondent, the answer states, is without sufficient funds to pay the parties in the cause at the date of this hearing and that it will be necessary for Hayes to commence a civil action against persons liable for the creation of the shortage in his account as soon as an investigation has been completed to ascertain the cause of the shortage.

man; that subsequent to turning over his files to Frank Kerr, master in chancery, the respondent was informed that the said George Gronewald had made a payment of $2,653.90 without the knowledge of the respondent.

First Knowledge

This, the respondent stated, was the first knowledge which he had of any irregularities in his accounts; that the respondent immediately commenced an investigation to ascertain the cause of the shortage in his account in this cause and discovered numerous irregularities in his accounts, not only in this cause but in other causes during his term as master and that these irregularities were connected and inter-related and that various debits and credits were made to the accounts which should have been separately maintained.

All funds received by the respondent as master in chancery, the answer stated, were kept and maintained in special bank accounts and that no part of the funds received by the respondent had ever been commingled with any of his personal funds and that the respondent had no funds in his hands belonging to any persons entitled to said funds by reason of his Mastership.

The respondent stated he has not completed his investigation but upon information and belief alleges that the shortages in his accounts has resulted in the following manner:

Charges Forgery

That at various times during the period that he held office as master in chancery some person or persons whose identity is presently unknown to the respondent obtained funds from the separate bank accounts maintained by the respondent as master in chancery by issuing forged checks drawn upon said accounts and by wrongfully obtaining possession of valid checks issued by the respondent and forging the endorsement of the payee thereon and that the banks in which said funds were kept and maintained negligently honored such checks; that by the various transfer of funds between accounts by a person or persons unknown to the respondent, the shortages in the various accounts were concealed from the knowledge of the respondent; that a shortage was thereby created in an inactive account by the Citizens State bank of Mt. Morris which had been established for the deposit of other funds; that during the spring of 1949 it became necessary to make distribution of the funds in said cause and that immediately prior thereto the check of George Gronewald was delivered to some person or persons unknown to the respondent and that person forged the endorsement of the respondent upon said check and without knowledge of the respondent deposited the said funds in the Citizens State bank to conceal the shortage existing in that account whereas said check should have been deposited in the Forrester bank with other funds in that cause; that some person or persons has obtained the cancelled checks of the respondent and has concealed or destroyed them.

Complete Investigation

A complete investigation of this matter will require a detailed audit of all books of account of the master in chancery; the pleadings in each cause and various accounts be kept and maintained by banks in which funds were deposited, and the submission of numerous documents to handwriting experts.

The respondent, the answer states, is without sufficient funds to pay the parties in the cause at the date of this hearing and that it will be necessary for Hayes to commence a civil action against persons liable for the creation of the shortage in his account as soon as an investigation has been completed to ascertain the cause of the shortage.

HE DIDN'T CLOWN A BIT—"Lamebrain," the clown at Sunday's rodeo held at the Buck Deer ranch, north of Dixon, got serious once he got astride this Brahma. The big, beautiful Kaiser Traveler 2-cars-in-one...only $2088

Here's a sporting proposition: get "two cars" for the price of one... and get set for a wonderful time!

First, open the hold... 10 steel shod feet of space to hold all your gear, your supplies, yes even your boat. You're loaded for fun...so get going!

Get behind that powerhouse Thunderhead engine, with its gas-saving, hill-taking 7.3 to 1 compression ratio. Start out, and count on the Traveler's extra long 129" wheelbase to count off the miles without 'short car' fatigue!

Note for a quick change. Down goes the hatch, up comes the tail gate, back goes the seat. In 10 seconds... without using tools or bolts...you've got your second car...second to none for luxury. Its 10' seats are six-people wide. It's loaded for pleasure, for performance, for power, for prestige. So why don't you sport a Kaiser Traveler!

* Factory delivered and equipped. Federal tax paid. Transportation, local taxes (if any) additional.

China Going Red Is Laid to Hatred of White Men

By JAMES D. WHITE
AP Foreign News Analyst
(For DeWitt MacKenzie)

One of the more thoughtful men I know is a Chinese, born and educated among Americans.

This man was talking recently about the way Communism is sweeping over the land of his ancestors, China. He said:

"Perhaps without knowing it, Communism has climbed on the tiger of latent race hatred in Asia. That is its real threat to the world in the long view... that it may be tempted to try what Japan tried and failed to do—plunge the world into a racial war.

"Japan failed because China saw through her flimsy promises of an Asia for the Asiatics, and cast her lot with the west. But in this cold war China is falling on the other side, and as a colored people fighting for freedom from western control she will affect all other colored peoples fighting for the same thing.

"The thing is," my friend went on, "Communism flows into this part of the world because nothing has replaced the once-great prestige of the white man.

Headache to Come

"Communism's headache will come when the problem of retaining this vast new area of power becomes paramount.

"I think Communism is too inflexible a doctrine ever to deliver on these promises. When its time comes to put up or shut out, Communism will answer in Asia by preaching hatred of the white man.

"The danger will be all the greater unless the white man figures out some way to do a better job in Asia than Communism," my friend said.

This talk took place some months ago, but very recently its viewpoint has been backed up by two interesting sources.

One is old Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts of South Africa. Here is another man who has lived with the racial problem all his life. He sees the world as being in the middle of a century of revolution by the "colored" races of mankind.

This revolt dates roughly from the Boxer rebellion in China in 1900 and is now at a climax of some kind with the nationalistic revolution led by the Chinese Reds.

White Domination

But all of Asia, Smuts recently told Ernie Hill of The Chicago Daily News, is throwing off white domination. "Asia is Africa's neighbor," said Smuts. "We must rise to vision and magnanimity or we shall be wiped out with the march of world events."

It doesn't need to happen, Smuts believes. If the richer but out-numbered western half of the world faces the "facts of world change" and guides and helps the colored peoples to a better life, something more stable than Communism will result and the two worlds can live in peace.

Police to Escort Chicago Gas Trucks Trouble Feared

Chicago, Aug. 15—(AP)—Police had orders to escort gasoline tank trucks today as a Chicago areas gas truck drivers' strike went into its fifth day.

Lieutenant Patrick J. Condon, of the Englewood district station, said, "we've got order here to convoy gas trucks through our district today if it looks like there's going to be any trouble."

There was trouble in the area yesterday. Thomas Bowman, 38, reported to police that he was twice halted and threatened while driving. He was given police protection.

Tore Off Signs

Police said that Bowman told them that in addition, two men tore off union placards from the side of his truck. The signs announced that Bowman's employers, the K. Friend and Co. truckers, had already signed a new contract with the striking AFL international teamsters' union.

The men who wheel the big rigs to the filling stations of the nation's second largest city struck in a demand for a 17½ cent an hour wage hoist. Employers countered with a 7½ cent offer.

In reply, members of the Chicago teamsters local went out, and other locals in the Chicago area followed them.

The men had been making about $1.77 an hour.

About 150 smaller gasoline hauling firms signed new contracts with their drivers, incorporating the union demand. According to the union plan, these trucks were to be marked by placards, as was Bowman's area's 4,000 filling stations.

Louis F. Pieck, spokesman for the teamsters, said that the employers who have signed with the union are not supposed to serve any gas stations except the ones they regularly supply.

The Chicago Transit Authority and the Chicago Motor Coach Company planned spot passenger checks early today. They want to find out how much extra equipment must be put on. Public transportation lines must now carry those who have left their cars at home in the face of the dwindling gas supply.

Conciliator Hopeful

Howard Plank, federal conciliator, said yesterday a meeting between teamster leaders and the temporary committee for struck oil companies made him feel hopeful.

The bigger oil companies—Phillips, Shell, Standard, Pure Oil, Sinclair—are among those which have not signed with the union yet.

Mel L. Vorhees, chairman of the employers committee, said that many of the smaller companies which have signed had only one truck on the road.

There were more and more signs going up: "Sorry—out of gas."

I-H Chicago Plant Workers Vote Strike

Chicago, Aug. 13—(AP)—CIO farm equipment workers have voted five to one in favor of a strike at the International Harvester Company's Chicago tractor works.

The vote was announced last night by Warren Miller, president of local 101, as 2,698 in favor of a strike, 471 opposed, 25 invalid ballots. The issues in dispute involve pension and wage demands.

Meantime Gerald Fieldie, chairman of the FE Harvester Council, said a national strike vote involving 11 plants will be taken next Tuesday.

Four of the plants are in Chicago. Others are at Rock Island, East Moline, Rock Falls, and Canton, Ill.; Auburn, N. Y.; Louis-
